BILLY DALESSANDRO'S

CRACKTIME

Soniculture, the Lisbon-based label, proudly presents Billy Dalessandro's 5th album entitled 'Cracktime'. This project forges a new generation of production style and sound design for Billy as he cocks the shotgun of his latest experiment in electronic debauchery. 'Cracktime' sonically defines those innocent and naughty moments that each of us exhibit, in our own way, that helps to fulfill our lives with all those insane memories we carry with us back to the grave. Thirteen tracks round out this ring match in a dub-infused, 303-injected, Chicago-style bass'd-out fight that lasts just about an hour. So sit back (or jack back) to the show, and remember...that if Religion is the opium of the masses, Music definitely gives us our daily crack. AHmen, Bling Bling & Booyakasha!
