

An interview with John O'Callaghan... by Gar Browne

John o'callaghan

It seems John O'Callaghan can do no wrong. Currently ranked 24th in DJ Mag's top 100 DJs, and still riding high off the release of his second (and very well recieved) studio album, "Never Fade Away", John took the time out of his busy schedule to answer a few questions for us. If you're a fan, check it out.

John's also been nominated in 3 categories in this years Irish Dance Music Awards, Best DJ, Best Producer and Best Album, there's still time to cast your vote! Vote here... slick-dj.com
